

Covenant of Conduct

This goes along with the expectations you set for yourself.

I understand that during the Montana Mission trip to the Rocky Boy Indian Reservation, under the guidance of my church and as a representative of Christ and the Christian community, I am responsible for my own actions.

1. I intend to participate in all activities and be on time.
2. I will respect other participants at this event and treat them as fellow members of the Body of Christ.
3. I will respect and appreciate the different gifts, cultures, and perspectives encountered on this mission trip.
4. I will use appropriate behavior and topics of conversation (no swearing, sexual connotations, bullying or put downs).
5. I will respect the property of others.
6. I will not abuse my body with drugs, tobacco or alcohol at any time or have possession of these substances.
7. I will respect and honor the instructions—given by the leaders of St. Mark’s as well as the community and leadership of Our Saviour’s Lutheran Church.
8. I will be helpful and strive to do all things with a positive attitude and open mind.
9. I will be an active listener, strive not to talk while others are talking.
10. Given the conditions of this trip—heat, working on ladders, driving (if I am an adult), etc. I will not push myself beyond my limits. And listen to others when asked to take a break.

Should I break this covenant, I agree to accept the consequences of my actions. If it determined by my leaders that my behavior warrants my leaving this event, travel to my home will be at my own expense of that of my parent/guardians.
